

SOME RESULTS ON POINTWISE CONVERGENCE FOR LINEAR POSITIVE OPERATORS

A. J. López Moreno*, J. M. Latorre Palacios

Department of Mathematics, University of Jaén, 23071-Jaén, Spain
[ajlopez@ujaen.es]

2000 Mathematics Subject Classification. 41A36

Keywords and phrases. Linear positive operators, Bersntesin operators, rate of convergence, pointwise convergence.

We study some pointwise properties of convergence of classical sequences of Bernstein type operators. We can find in the literature many results (saturation, localization, etc.) analyzing the convergence of the operators with respect to a norm on certain subinterval. In this work we propose pointwise versions of some of these results.